Poem of the Week
Mary had a little Boy.

Mary had a little boy, his soul was white as snow.

He never went to Bible class, 'Cause Mary would not go.

He never heard the truths of Christ that thrill the childish mind,

While other children went to class this child was left behind.

And so he grew from babe to youth, she saw to her dismay;

A soul that once was snowy white, became a dingy gray.

Realizing he was lost, she tried to win
him back;

But now the soul that once was white had turned an ugly black.

She even started back to church, and Bible Study, too,

She begged the preacher; "Isn't there a thing that you can do?"

The preacher tried, and failed, and said,
"We are too far behind,

I tried to tell you years ago, but you would pay no mind."

And so, another soul is lost

That once was white as snow;

Bible study would have helped---

But Mary wouldn't go!

HOW MANY PEOPLE ARE THIS WAY THAT YOU KNOW????? How many of us are named in this poem????

All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags;
and we all do fade as a leaf." Isaiah 64:6

During the day prospective students will have an opportunity to meet with representatives of ACC's 19 departments. There will also be a chance to discuss work, scholarship and concession opportunities with ACC officials.

Today is the last Sunday of the month and we still need six can of beans, seven cans of corn and 18 cans for the mix case. It looks as if soem wants to get to heaven on the works of others. We are going to be judged by our own works. BRING YOUR CANNED FOOD.

HOW TO ENJOY THE BIBLE

There was a young lady at one time who read a book and having completed it remarked that it was the dullest book that she had read in many a day. Not long after this she met a young man, and in the course of time their friendship ripened in to love and they became engaged. One evening she said to him, "I have a book in my library written by a man whose name is the same as yours. Isn't that a coincidence?"

"I don't think so." he replied.

"Why not?"

"For the simple reason that I wrote the book."

The young lady sat up until the early morning hours to read the book again; and when she had finished it, it seemed to her the most interesting book she had ever read. It wasn't dull at all. The secret? She knew and loved the author.

You will enjoy the greatest of all books, the Bible, God's Word, if you love the Author. "We love him because he first loved us."

Come and study the Bible with us so you may know the author of the book that tell us where we came from and where we will go.
